

Michael Gomez Cuevas

February 23, 1991 - October 9, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Michael Gomez Cuevas, a beloved soul whose spirit touched all who knew him. Michael left us too soon, but his legacy of laughter, generosity, and warmth will forever remain in our hearts.

Michael had an extraordinary love for the outdoors. Whether he was biking through the neighborhood, picking flowers, or simply enjoying the sunshine, he found joy in nature's beauty and shared that joy with everyone around him. His laughter was infectious, and he had a unique gift for bringing smiles to the faces of others, often through his playful humor and kind spirit.

One of Michael's most remarkable qualities was his immense generosity. He had a knack for seeing the need in others and was always ready to lend a helping hand. His compassion knew no bounds, and he took genuine pleasure in giving, often putting others' needs before his own.

Michael had a strong presence that drew people in. He possessed a rare ability to see the purity in everything and everyone, reminding us to appreciate the simple joys of life. His warmth and strength will be missed, but his spirit will live on in the memories we cherish.

As we say goodbye to Michael, let us celebrate the light he brought into our lives. May we honor him by embracing the beauty around us, sharing laughter, and giving selflessly as he did. Rest in peace, Michael. Your love will forever guide us.

“ Michael was always such a nice and funny guy. I met him when he worked at Key Market. I had a crush on him. He was just so sweet and had such a handsome smile. I really enjoyed the friendship we shared. We definitely had some real fun party times. I'm so saddened and shocked by his passing. I pray for his family. I'll miss you Michael. I hope you're at peace.

“Michael was my “chosen” bestie. We used to joke that our parents must have arranged our friendship bc our moms had us only a couple months apart and then later on we lived only half a block away from eachother in the avenues in Menlo Park. We spent our entire childhood together, graduated high school together and entered adulthood alongside one another too. He was always there for me, whether it was a midnight taco run or just us roasting eachother and making eachother laugh. We always met up randomly just to catch up and after i moved from Menlo Park we made it a tradition that I'd always honk if i drove by his house, even when he wasn't home. He never failed to make the hard times in my life just a little easier to go through, he always listened and assured me it would be okay and that i could always talk to him about anything. He was a safe place for me. The bond we had was priceless to say the least. Although i wish we had more time, I'll always be grateful for our friendship and countless memories. My dearest Michael, I'll miss you always and I'll think of you whenever i see the prettiest flowers bloom. 💙

“ Me and Michael worked together at Wegmans Nursery. He was a really good, kind hearted, funny young man. His laugh and smile was so infectious. We had many fun times and laughs, including the time he unknowingly locked me in the building at closing time, I set off the alarm and the police came before he got back to me lol We laughed about it all the time.

Me and My Family Loved Michael and We Will Miss Him Deeply.

“ Michael was one of my best friend's growing up, and some of my favorite childhood memories are with him. We spent countless weekends at each other's houses, just enjoying being together—back when smartphones weren't a thing and we had fun the old school way. He had two beautiful German Shepards, Cloe and Lucas, and the coolest house in the neighborhood, with a dedicated playroom where we'd play video games like SOCOM all night and mess around with a piano. Michael loved to play the guitar when he was in elementary school, and I found it inspiring how he knew how to play the introduction to 7 Nation Army so well. We'd ride gas-powered scooters around town, and I'd always joke about how he had to check in with his mom every 4 hours. His parents, Margarita and Angel, were always so kind and supportive, making me feel like part of the family. Michael never failed to make me laugh until my stomach hurt. I'll always treasure those memories. Rest in peace, Michael.

“ Mike had a great sense of humor with a big smile to go with it. As big as a smile Mike had, he had an even bigger heart. He was one of the kindest, polite and caring person you would ever meet. If he felt he could help someone out in any way, he wouldn't hesitate to extend his hand. I remember the last time I saw him we were standing near my car and he noticed the crack on my windshield. I told him the crack was from a bad installation but the place I took it to refused to honor their warranty. Mike pulled out his phone, made a call, took some pictures of the damage and told me his friend would let him know if he could help. These small gestures of kindness is what I'm going to miss the most.

“ I first met Michael years ago as a kid. His sister Angie was high school friends with my older sister. As years went by, it became one of those friendships where you end up including younger siblings into the hangouts. On one of those morning hangouts almost a decade ago, Angie and Mikey were busy cooking eggs. Mikey was offering me and my partner a plate with what he called “huevitos con platanitos”. He knew it was a goofy way to say it and was smirking the whole time. To this day, years later, we frequently say “huevitos con platanito”. Silly, small, but still a cherished memory that Mikey created for us. I’m glad to have known him even for the limited interactions we had. My prayers for his sister and family.

“ Michael was my neighbor from my childhood and he was always a fun, kind person! He loved the wrestler The Rock and would imitate the eye brow lift spot on! One of the fond childhood memories I remember is that after my siblings made fun of me for wearing an eye patch he said something that made me feel cared for and supported! I want to say it was the first time some one showed empathy to me and I will always carry that memory with me! RIP Michael!

“Michael, I will forever cherish all the big hugs and smiles you showered on us. You would often come to our house with your Dad and you would always trim some branches, cut up recycling or ask me if you could do something for us. You were never one to sit down and do nothing. We love you mijo and will always miss you ❤️

“ I remember the first day I was old enough to realize Mikey was my cousin we were scared little kindergarteners on our first day at Nativity our moms said “get together for a picture that’s your cousin”! We both smiled for the picture and a sense of safety came over me. For the next 9 years he maintained being my safety with that big smile & those dimples & those big bear hugs he would give. Mikey was always happy, cracking jokes, at the same time the nicest and most caring.

Always there for whatever you needed from him. I am so thankful I got to have him by my side those years I will forever cherish our childhood together.

Mikey I love you! Fly high cousin 🕊️❤️🙏

“Michael was my 'little big brother'; always there for me whether it was to protect me, humor me, or listen to me. Mikey was always up for a good time, if was just the two of us going out for lunch or joining with a group of friends or family. He loved making others laugh and feel included in the fun.

I remember making mud balls and placing them in the street, then hiding behind plant pots and watching cars drive over the dirt ball to flatten them out. We did that when we were kids but would occasionally bring it up and just laugh and how silly it was, yet how entertained it kept us! That was Michael, finding the fun in nearly anything.

“ Mikey was so much more than just a name; he was a loving son, a devoted brother, a cherished uncle, a beloved cousin, a treasured nephew, a doting grandson, and a true friend. The ache of his absence is profound, a void that feels impossible to fill. Yet, I find solace in knowing that his spirit will forever dwell within our hearts. Whenever I share stories about Michael with family and friends, they all remember his radiant smile—the kind that could light up even the darkest of rooms. It brings me comfort to know that he is remembered for that beautiful smile, a reflection of the warmth and joy he brought into our lives. It was a smile that mirrored his heart, and it will always be a part of who he was. Mikey, I love you deeply, and I miss you more than words can express. Your memory will forever be a guiding light in our lives.
